

Safe transit through the Czech Republic

Czech Republic

Every year, the number of foreign vehicles transiting through Czech Republic increases. Cesmad Bohemia has just launched a platform (website and mobile application) to inform foreign truck drivers on general information about safe transit through the country.

Specific driving conditions related to construction works during the summer period are also available on this platform.

More information available on the website www.transit.tir.cz or via the leaflet attached (in English language).

Source: Cesmad Bohemia
