

Update coronavirus outbreak – Georgia suspend its permit emissions for Italy and the Islamic Republic of Iran

Georgia

Since February 28th 2020, Georgia is suspending the emission of permits for international passenger transport and international freight transport to the Islamic Republic of Iran and Italy. Note that authorisations that have been previously issued will not be accepted.

This measure has been taken to prevent the spread of the coronavirus in the country.

More information in Georgian here.

Source: GIRCA
